“2020 GREEN STREET”, “NASD”, “NSLP”, “SIA Investor”, Thomson Financial”, “Cancer Treatment Center of America”

CTCA is an organization that provides help for cancer patients. I designed a series of patient education materials that patients get during their treatment. The goal was to make the patient information as informative as possible.

SIA Investor is a financial website- I updated and created art for existing site.

NASD is a site for investor education- I designed and created the web page and art.

NSLP is a site for the National Student Loan Program- I designed and created the web page and art.

Thomson Financial is a leading financial analyst firm. I designed a whole system of material that provides investors with analyst information. It includes charts and a general design for printable reports.

The “2020” project was a revision and an update of their existing website- I refined the existing content and art.
